RETRO CAT-EYES, the studious tortoiseshell, the brooding browline, the futuristic frameless—the number of eyeglass designs is endless. Add in a rainbow of colours and it becomes impossible to pick just one pair. But that's all right with us. A wardrobe of glasses means you'll always have frames for any event: cat-eyes with diamond studs for a night out, aviators for an afternoon perusing bookstores. Move those contact refills into storage and say hello to on-trend specs.
