Embrace the Wild Wild West sentiment with open arms this fall when it comes to eyewear - almost anything goes! Unrestricted silhouettes, like free-flowing shields, extreme cat-eyes and domineering squares, encourage freedom of expression, while scrupulous detailing makes these frames downright showstoppers. Vintage appeal is a major player for men; clip-on lenses, keyhole bridges and wire accents flawlessly channel that sought-after '70s vibe. For the ladies, esoteric patterns - think animalistic motifs, lacy arrangements, houndstooth prints and abstract swirls - coupled with edgy cutouts offer just the right amount of panache to quench any trend influencer's fashionable thirst. Bottom line: Go big, or go home!
