PATTERN MAKERS

THEY'VE GOT THE LOOK

Why go plain when you can go print?
BY RACHEL BOZEK

1. PRODESIGN The milled Clear features two layers of custom-made acetate: a transparent layer on top and a colorful bottom layer. (800) 654-6099, prodesigndenmark.com, $255 | 2. FYSH The retro-inspired F-2094 features a metal endpiece connecting the temples to the rim. (855) 455-0042, westgroupe.com, $235 | 3. MARC JACOBS This magnetic clip-on sun makes its mark with the Marc Jacobs monogram printed boldly across the front, along with a double metal trim on the temples. (800) 631-1168, mysafilo.com, $240 | 4. L.A.EYEWORKS Handmade in Japan, the acetate Goodall, shown here in Sparrow, takes graphics — and design — to a whole new level. (323) 962-3915, laeyeworks.com, $440 | 5. TORY BURCH A flat top sets the oversized design of this logo-printed sun style — TY 7185U — apart from the crowd. (800) 422-2020, myluxottica.com, $188 | 6. SHWOOD The Gabe from the Pendleton Sun line is made from recycled water bottles and has TAC polarized lenses. (503) 864-6928, shwoodshop.com, $50 | 7. O'NEILL The beachy ONS-Coast-127P offers maximum protection with Hydrofreak polarized lenses and a heat-resistant frame. (844) 771-7710, clubinspecs.com, $69 | 8. DRAPER JAMES Delicate flowers define the DJ5039, a combination frame with metal temples and double laminate crystal acetate frame fronts and temple tips. (800) 645-1300, marchon.com, $203 | 9. DUTZ The black-and-white checkered-print DZ2251-95 is a soft P3 style with red details on the frame front and inside temples. (949) 215-9661, brilleneyes.com, starting at $249
